

Caledonian Society for Endocrinology

Programme for the Winter Meeting Peebles Hydro Hotel, 30th November – 1st December 2007

Friday 30th November

- 1900 Welcome/Introductory Remarks
- 1910-1930 Audit of the impact of NICE guidelines for adult growth hormone replacement on practice in Scotland
Dr Isabel Howat (on behalf of the Scottish Growth Hormone Audit Group)
Victoria Infirmary, Glasgow
- 1930-2030 Traumatic brain injury and hypopituitarism - Implications for clinical practice
Professor Chris Thompson
Professor of Endocrinology, Beaumont Hospital, Dublin
- 2030 Society Dinner

Saturday 1st December

- 0900-0945 Diagnosis and management of neuroendocrine tumours
Dr Mark Strachan
Consultant Physician/Endocrinologist, Western General, Edinburgh
- 0945-1030 Glitazones-what's the fuss?
Dr Miles Fisher/Dr David McGrane
Consultant Physician/SpR in Diabetes, Glasgow Royal Infirmary
- 1030-1100 Coffee
- 1100-1245 Society Abstracts and Presentations
- Headaches and Hypopituitarism
Dr Lynsey Frew, Southern General Hospital, Glasgow
 - A novel mechanism for inherited pheochromocytoma: VHL presenting as hypertension in a twin pregnancy
Dr Jeeven Mettayil, Endocrine Unit, Newcastle Hospitals
 - An example of Doege Potter Syndrome
Dr Jim Boyle, Gartnavel General Hospital, Glasgow
 - IGF-1 deficiency and associated cervical syrinx
Dr Anna Smyth, Royal Hospital for Sick Children, Glasgow
 - Is there an association between growth hormone treatment in childhood and gastric polyps?

Dr Jarod Wong, Royal Hospital for Sick Children, Glasgow

- Vertebral fracture assessment in patients presenting with incident non-vertebral fractures

Dr David Carty, University of Glasgow

1245-1300 Business meeting and presentation of prize

1300 Lunch and close of meeting