

Caledonian Society for Endocrinology

Programme for the Winter Meeting Peebles Hydro Hotel, 5-6th December 2008

Friday 5th December

- 1900 Welcome/Introductory Remarks
- 1915-2015 The epidemic of primary aldosteronism-where has it been hiding?
Professor Paul Padfield
Consultant Physician/Professor of Hypertension
Western General, Edinburgh
- 2015 Society Dinner

Saturday 6th December

- 0900-0945 Diagnosing and learning lessons from syndromes of severe insulin resistance
Dr Robert Semple
Wellcome Trust Clinician Scientist Fellow
Addenbrookes Hospital, Cambridge
- 0945-1030 Stimulating the skeleton: Anabolic effects of GH and PTH
Professor William D Fraser
School of Clinical Sciences
University of Liverpool
- 1030-1100 Coffee
- 1100-1130 Caledonian Endocrine Society Prize Lecture
The role of AMP-activated protein kinase in the pharmacological treatment of Type 2 diabetes.
Dr Jim Boyle, SpR Diabetes & Endocrinology, Western Infirmary, Glasgow
- 1130-1245 Society Abstracts and Presentations:
- Measuring cortisone production using a new stable isotope tracer
Katherine A Hughes, Rebecca Reynolds, Ruth Andrew, Brian Walker
Endocrinology Unit, Centre for Cardiovascular Science, University of Edinburgh
- The effects of variation in the aldosterone synthase gene (CYP11B2) on left ventricular remodelling in a post myocardial infarction population
MA Rutherford, R Weir, R Fraser, JM Connell, E Davies
BHF Glasgow Cardiovascular Research Centre
- Still thyrotoxic 6 weeks after therapeutic I¹³¹ - what next?
M Cairns, C Cooper, G Ainslie-McLaren, N Barwell, S Cleland
Endocrinology clinic, Stobhill Hospital, Glasgow

Clinical efficacy and cost effectiveness of brief educational intervention in type I diabetes: Results from the BITES randomised control trial

Jyothis George, SpR Endocrinology, Edinburgh

Aldosterone renin ratio in hypertension: more than a marker for primary aldosteronism?

S Alvarez-Madrazo, S Padmanabhan, AM Wallace, M Campbell, J Smith, E Friel, C Dorrian, B Keavney, E Davies, JM Connell

BHF Glasgow Cardiovascular Research Centre

1245-1300 Business Meeting

1300 Close of meeting and lunch